Imprison Senator Power.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 19.—United States Senator Power, of Montana, in an interview says he thinks the silver advocates in the last Congress had made a mistake in trying to adopt a measure providing for absolute free coinage of silver. The Senator is rated as one of the most ardent silver men, because his own State was full of bullion owners; he said, however, he did not think it was sound policy to jump too quickly to the free coinage of the white metal. "It will not do for three silver producing States to attempt to dictate the financial policy of the whole country," he said. "Colorado, Montana and Idaho, of course, want to dispose of their silver at the best possible price. I think it best that the country will act fairly with these States, if they don't ask too much. I don't believe it best to adopt free coinage while bullion is worth only $1 per ounce. When legislation is enacted that will advance the price of bullion, which I hope will soon come, free coinage will follow naturally." Senator Power is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel nursing his wrist, sprained about a week ago as he was alighting from a carriage.

Balloting for Senator.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SACRAMENTO, March 19.—The eighth joint convention and assembly met at noon to-day for the purpose of taking another ballot for U. S. Senator. At the close of the first ballot Estee had 40 and Felton 40. Then changes began to take place. Ragsdale changed his vote from Estee to Felton. Fowler voted for Felton. Bruner changed from Johnston to Felton. Denison, Baughman, Weston, Fraser, Simpson, Murphy, Hocking, Shippee, Sturtevant, Bailey, Byrnes, Harlow, Smith of Butte, Culver, Ames, Voorhies, Brown, Lacy, Streeter and others went to Felton amid great applause. Sewell, Goucher, Langford and Hamill (Dems.) changed from Hiseock to White. Harp voted for White and Hall changed from Estee to Speaker Coombs.

After all the changes had been recorded the Speaker announced the following result: Total number of votes cast 118; necessary to a choice, 60. White received 28, Estee 15, Felton 73, Johnston 1 and Hancock 1. The Speaker then announced that Charles N. Felton had been elected United States Senator, and the convention adjourned.

Decision of Guiana Doubled.

By Cable and Associated Press.
OTTAWA, March 19.—In regard to a dispatch from Washington to the effect that the government of British Guiana declined to enter into a reciprocity treaty with Canada, it may be stated that the government received no intimation of the kind from Guiana. It is regarded as altogether unlikely that the government of that colony has yet decided upon reciprocity proposals from Canada.

Satisfied Sioux.

By Associated Press.
PIERRE (S. D.), March 19.—Captain Baldwin of the Fifth Infantry of the U. S. Army, who has just returned from a tour of the Indian country, says the aborigines at the different agencies are in a most peaceful mood, and that no trouble need be feared from them the coming summer.

Grievance Rumors.

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, March 19.—The Grievance Committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors to-day had several conferences with George C. Smith, Assistant General Manager of the Missouri Pacific, but decline to state the nature of the business discussed.

Cofferdam Gone.

By Associated Press.
SAULT ST. MARIE (Mich.), March 19.—The cofferdam at the canal gate away last night and Collins & Farwell's entire plant is under water. Work on the new lock will be delayed about six weeks, as the lock-pit is filling up with water.

Investigating.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, March 19.—The Investigating Committee met again this morning. The packages of scraps were all opened and members of the committee set to work pasting the pieces together. A marked roll call was first placed in shape. It showed names of fourteen members marked with a cross after their names. Ten members are checked in the "no" column. Fourteen names are checked in the "aye" column.

The following dispatch was found: "Western Union Telegraph Company. To M. M. Estee. Is Fred Lux father of young Lux of Sacramento?" Signed, John Zollner.

A manila sheet containing figuring, when pasted together showed the following: "City, figures 18," with a 2 under them. Then follows a column with 17 crossed off at top. Under it comes in column 16, 10, 16, with line drawn under it and total of 42 under, struck; then 42 subtracted from 55, leaving 13. This 13 is divided by 13 with the result of $216.66.

There is no explanation to the figures aside from this. There were a number of buff wrappers which had evidently come around packages of greenbacks. They were dated third month and sixteenth day, and are marked as containing the following sums: $2000, $500, $500, $1000, $100, $100, $400. The aggregate sum is $7500. Before the pasting had all been completed Attorney-General Hart suggested that the cashier of the Fresno Bank be subpoenaed to appear before the committee this evening. The committee adopted the suggestion, and the cashier will be summoned by telegraph. The manila sheet of paper which contained the names is pasted together. It contained the following names: Alexander, Ames, Brown, Bruner, Bryant, Carter, Culver, Dow, Hall, Hersey, Johnston, Low, Matlock, Arms, Brown, Hocking, Barnett of Sonoma, Dennis, Dunn, Fowler, Lacy, Lynch, Marion. The following names in the list had crosses marked against them: Low, Ames, Fowler and Marion. This is as far as the sheet has been completed at present. There was a blank Fresno Bank check which had been used as a wrapper. On the back of it was written: "Fresno Loan and Savings Bank, 316, $500."

The American Reg.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 19.—A Washington special to the Mail and Express says: President Harrison has determined upon summary measures to relieve the American pork, which is the subject of so much German opposition. Minister Phelps has been notified by the State Department, at the request of President Harrison, to demand of the German authorities that the embargo be at once removed, else the President will proceed to exercise the authority given him by the last Congress and by proclamation close our ports against all German imports.

The announcement amounts to nothing less than a threat, and the result will be interesting. The State Department officials refused to discuss the matter this morning. There is no doubt a communication has been sent to Minister Phelps, for the President so informed a Senator who called upon him this morning.

Victims of the Cordage Fire.

By Associated Press.
ELIZABETH (N. J.), March 19.—Fears that Adam Schriber, an aged employee, perished in the Elizabethport cordage works fire was confirmed this morning by the discovery of his bones in the ruins. Superintendent Williams estimates the loss at $700,000. The company was fully insured. Williams said the company would immediately rebuild.

John B. Finerty, one of the crew of the United States steamer Mohican, was killed on the tenth inst. by being struck by a falling yard during the regulation practice of lowering yards. He was a native of Boston and a member of the G. A. R. and 62 years of age.

The Japanese steamer Yamashiro Maru arrived at Honolulu on the 11th inst. with over one thousand Japanese immigrants. The Advertiser editorially welcomes this addition to the working population of the islands.

A Woman's Work.

By Associated Press.
WORCESTER (Mass.), March 19.—The famous Lilla Hoyle murder mystery of September, 1887, was explained through a confession made by Alice Hoyle to her aunt and by the latter given to the public to-day. The two girls were sisters, and both loved the same man. This man, Thomas McQuaid, seemed to show a preference for Lilla, and this made Alice mad. Alice says, in her confession, that McQuaid had told her he would marry her if they could get Lilla, who was in a delicate condition, out of the way. This was done by the girl, her uncle, McQuaid and another man, so the confession goes, and the body disposed of.

After the deed was committed Alice lived with her uncle and aunt, who concealed the crime. Some time after the girl eloped with her uncle, and the aunt, in revenge for that, gave the details of the crime to the public.

Serious Interruption.

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, March 19.—Dispatches from Texas say that owing to the crevasses caused by the floods, the Southern Pacific has been compelled to abandon two passenger and nine freight trains. The Texas Transportation Company's road is being gotten in readiness and Morgan steamers will take all through California freight around by way of the Gulf to Clinton from New Orleans and then by rail. Business by the regular route will not be resumed for three months.

Another Failure.

By Associated Press.
BLACK RIVER FALLS, (Wis.), March 19.—The wagon factory, blacksmith shops and other manufacturing of D. Spaulding, the leading lumberman of this section have been closed. Nearly all the creditors are secured by mortgages. His liabilities are $210,000; assets about $700,000. The crash was caused by selling on long credit.

Steamer Grounded.

Special to the GAZETTE.
ASTORIA (Ore.), March 19.—This morning the steamship Batavia, when coming down from Portland, would not answer her helm in making the bend of the channel above the wreck of the Sylvia Degreen, and the vessel could not be stopped until she had grounded.

Not the Man.

By Associated Press.
ABERDEEN (S. D.), March 19.—Barnes, the alleged Tascott, was confronted this morning by Clark, the Chicago witness, who said the resemblance was remarkable, but that he is positive Barnes is not Tascott. Barnes was discharged.

Ring Talk From Antipodes.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Sam Fitzpatrick, who returned on the steamship Mariposa, said there was a doubt whether Joe Goddard intends coming here at all, and that Joe Choyinski had remained in the colonies because he had been matched to fight Mick Dooley before the Sydney Gymnastic Club in March. Of Choyinski's fight with Goddard the Sydney Referee says: "It was a grim slaughter, terrible fight all the journey, and the better man won. His mighty strength and lion heart won the battle for him, and he can thank Foley for the splendid advice he gave him. All through Choyinski was whipped, but he proved to be a man that Americans may well feel proud of. He gave way two stone, six pounds, and it was that which licked him. This fight should teach the Sydney public that they have underrated the game, clever Mick Dooley, who twice met and fought Joe Goddard to a standstill. Choyinski is record as a wonder in Americans, and against men of his own weight, so he is."

Another Bank Failure.

By Associated Press.
LOUISVILLE, March 19.—Theodore Schwartz & Co., private bankers, failed to-day for half a million dollars. Their assignment carries to the wall the Union Tobacco Works. Schwartz was a resident German consul and operated a savings bank in connection with his other business. Fred Janzen, a member of the firm, has mysteriously disappeared, and fears are entertained that he has committed suicide. No dishonesty is traceable to him.

Just who the largest creditors are cannot be determined at this time, in the absence of positive information from the firm or from the assignee or attorney, and any information would be guess-work. But it is understood at least that some other Louisville financial institutions are caught pretty heavily, and that possibly other failures may result. It is generally supposed that the financial crash is due to the late financial stringency.

Directors Elected.

By Associated Press.
BOSTON (Mass.), March 19.—A dispatch from Salt Lake City, Utah, says: At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Railroad held yesterday, F. L. Ames, E. F. Atkins, E. F. Gordon Dexter of Boston, Sydney Dillon and A. H. Green of New York, John Sharp of Salt Lake City, Jay Gould and Russell Sage of New York, and S. H. H. Clark of Omaha, were elected directors. The last three named were elected in place of C. F. Adams, D. B. Thompson and W. H. Halcombe. Only routine business was transacted.

Not the Wine.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 19.—The chemist who analyzed the port wine used by Mrs. A. J. Snell, supposed to contain poison, has been unable to find traces of either arsenic or sugar of lead. Mrs. Snell's symptoms indicate one of these poisons. No charges of poisoning have been brought against the maid. The crystals found in her trunk are now said to be alum.

A Case of Poisoning.

By Associated Press.
PITTSBURG (Pa.), March 19.—After partaking of prepared meat purchased at a corner grocery yesterday, James M. Nolen and wife, well-to-do residents of the east end, were seized with symptoms of arsenical poisoning. Nolen died in great agony this morning, but his wife will probably recover. The case is being investigated.

Victims of the Disaster.

By Cable and Associated Press.
GIBRALTAR, March 18.—The revised official count of the lost and saved passengers and crew of the ill-fated Utopia shows 890 souls on board. The saved include 290 steerage passengers, two saloon passengers, three Italian interpreters and twenty-three of the crew.

NEVADA LEGISLATURE.

SIXTIETH AND LAST DAY.

Special to the GAZETTE.
CARSON, March 19.—Assembly bills passed as follows: Protection of wild game; purchase of specimens of gold quartz; military post at Hawthorne; soldiers' and sailors' monument.

McClellan's water bill passed the Senate.

The Governor has signed the following bills: Nixon's Judicial Districts; Proving Indian Claims; McFadden's reduction of salaries of Supreme Judges. The Fish bill was amended and passed the Senate, and the Assembly concurred in the amendment.

Lively times are expected to-night. Nixon will present a $200 diamond shirt button to the Speaker, in the name of the Assembly, and Trembath will present a gold-headed cane to Speaker pro tem Menary. Grove's Woman's Rights bill will be taken from the table and cause some fun. Thompson's bill reducing salaries and per diem of legislators will also come up for discussion.

A Missing Steamer.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The Merchants Exchange has received a dispatch from London stating that the British ship Malaysia, hence August 6th for Queenstown, is post d at Lloyd's as missing. Fear has existed here for some months that the Malaysia had gone to the bottom with all hands, numbering 28. She left here with the Ventura, on August 6th last, for foreign ports loaded with wheat. On the 20th of September the Ventura returned in a demoralized condition, having passed through a fearful hurricane, and the Malaysia may have gone down at that time.

The Dying Legislature.

To-night at 12 o'clock the Fifteenth session of the Nevada Legislature breathes its last, and the people will have reason to rejoice. While two-thirds of the early part of the session was frittered away in the passage of laws of no practical benefit to the State, the members have done better in the remaining days of the session. They have passed bills that will give the people relief in 1892; the expenses of the county governments have been materially reduced; the Australian ballot system has become a law; the bill subsidizing a railroad across the State has been passed; the bill creating water districts will undoubtedly pass to-day. So the Legislature has not been entirely void of well-doing. Never in the history of the State did men have such a chance to make a record as in this session, but as legislators are generally a good index to the community at large, perhaps we expected too much. If the so-called bosses influenced the members they did it without boodle, and that fact should redound to the credit of the State. We have not heard it even hinted that any member betrayed his trust for a dollar and cent consideration. Perhaps after all the Fifteenth session of the Nevada Legislature will compare very favorably with other States. We attribute the inertia that the present session has displayed more to a lack of knowledge of the subjects presented than any willful attempt on the part of the members to violate their pledges made to the people. One thing stands out in bold relief that should be a lesson to the people, and that is electing tax-eaters to pass laws for taxpayers. A non-tax-payer cannot have that sympathy for the masses that one who contributes to the support of the State government has. He is more easily influenced than a man whose pocket is affected by the passage of any measure, and will not weigh so carefully the outcome. When the members go to their respective homes and mingle once again with their constituents, they will, perhaps, see the mistake they have made. We are charitable enough to attribute their shortcomings more to a lack of knowledge of governmental affairs than a desire to thwart the State's best interests.

THE California Legislature to-day elected the Hon. Charles N. Felton U. S. Senator to succeed Senator Hearst, deceased. Mr. Felton is a clean man and will make a good representative, but we would have been better pleased if his silver ideas were more in keeping with the free coinage movement. His course when a Congressman was not such as to warrant the belief that silver men have much to hope for from California's new Senator.

In a case against persons in Inyo county charged with cutting timber on public lands, Secretary Noble decides that they must pay for what they cut and sold, but were entitled to what they needed for their own farm improvements. This is good policy as well as good law. There is no sense in the application of departmental red tape which prevents the development of the country.

BRITISH GUIANA rejects Canadian reciprocity, preferring to enter into reciprocal arrangements with the United States. This is rather a slap at Sir John Macdonald's plan for a Colonial Zellerbach, or something to that effect. We can outbid him every time twelve to one in the mere matter of population, saying nothing of our higher industrial developments.

THE New Orleans police think that the threatening letters received by Mayor Shakespeare and W. S. Pakerson, are fakes. If they mean jokes, it is in order to remark that such jokes are very ill-timed and calculated to arouse passions and prejudices already too much excited.

THE Italian Minister at Washington is about to return home on a visit to his family, leaving the legation in charge of a subordinate. This does not look like any great excitement in diplomatic circles over the New Orleans affair.

SKILLFUL CHICKEN STEALING.

A Species of Robbery Quite Prevalent at the National Capital.

"Yes, this is a good season of the year for chicken thieves," echoed Detective Block the other day, when a Washington Star reporter spoke to him about that class of criminals. "But," he added, "there haven't been so many cases of chicken stealing lately as there used to be. Reports of that particular sort of stealing are few and far between. Now and then, however, three or four jobs are done in as many nights, and then nothing is heard from the chicken man for a long time. This is just the time of the year for them to operate, but this year there seems to be a scarcity of such thieves or else chickens are not so plentiful. Those who are called chicken thieves do not confine themselves to robbing chicken houses, but they steal all sorts of fowls, turkeys, ducks or chickens. And, strange to say, this class of offenders confine their stealing chiefly to fowls. Seldom do they steal other articles, and very few of them, indeed, are all-round thieves."

"How do they manage to rob a house of all its fowls without making noise enough to rouse the owner of the fowls?" the reporter inquired. "Easy enough," was the reply. "To use their language, they 'charm' the fowls before they attempt to leave the premises with them, even if their heads have to be taken off. The thieves who are classed among the good ones, or those who thoroughly understand their business, seldom take away a live chicken unless the number captured is very small. Sometimes," continued the detective, "the thieves use sulphur to strangle the fowls with, and it acts like a charm. They use a box of blue-headed matches, which they dampen and rub against their hand so that the fumes of sulphur that arise get into the lungs of the fowls and prevent them from crowing or cocking or giving any alarm whatever. Then the burglar stretches in his arm and collects his fowls one by one."

"Everybody," said the detective, "can't steal chickens. There seems to be some peculiar qualifications necessary to make a man an expert at the business. An expert thief knows well the necessity of always keeping a pot of boiling water on the stove at home, so that when he returns with the plunder he can get the feathers off them and prepare them for market as soon as possible. Then he knows that the means of identification have been destroyed. Often when such a robbery has been committed early in the morning the chickens are on a bench in the market before they are cold."

"Many a night on my tour through the city I have smelled smoke from burning feathers and been satisfied the feathers were picked from stolen fowls and were being burned to destroy their value as evidence."

A BORN COURTIER.

Royal Compliment to the Late Emperor William by a Tiny Subject.

During a stay of Emperor William I. of Germany, at a fashionable watering place at Ems, that monarch paid a visit to a large orphan asylum and school that was under Government patronage. The presence of so distinguished a personage created quite a sensation in the establishment, says the Chicago Herald.

After listening with much interest to the recitations of several of the classes, his Majesty called to him a bright flaxen-haired little girl of five or six years of age, and lifting her into his lap, said: "Now, my little fraulein, let me see how well you have been taught. To what kingdom does this belong?" And taking out of his pocket an orange, he held it up to her.

The little girl hesitated for a moment, and looking timidly up to the Emperor's face, replied: "To the vegetable kingdom."

"Very good, my little fraulein; and now to what kingdom does this belong?" And he drew out of his pocket a gold piece and placed it on the orange. Again the little girl hesitated, but soon replied: "To the mineral kingdom."

"Better and better," said the Emperor. "Now look at me and say to me to what kingdom I belong."

At this question there was an ominous silence among the teachers and visitors who were listening with much interest to the royal catechism. Could she make any other reply than "To the animal kingdom?"

A Pioneer's Experience With Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I am a pioneer in this county, having been here 30 years. Four years ago my little son Elmer became blood-poisoned by impure virus in vaccination. His arm swelled terribly, causing great agony; physicians said the arm must be amputated, and even then his recovery would be doubtful. One day I read about a blood purifier, new to me, and was surprised to learn that it was prepared by G. I. Hood, with whom I used to go to school in Chelsea, Vt. I decided to have my boy try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and was much gratified when it seemed to help him. He continued to grow better as we gave him the Sarsaparilla, and having used 6 bottles is now entirely cured. As Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished such wonderful results, I recommend it all I possibly can." JEROME M. SLEPPER, Upper Lake, Lake Co., Cal.

The City Treasurer Of Lowell, Mass., says: "The above is from my brother, whose signature I recognized. I am also glad to testify to the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and to say that G. I. Hood & Co. are considered one of the most reliable firms in New England." VAN R. SLEPPER, City Treasurer, Lowell, Mass.

Important to Breeders!

BOZERO!

Will make a limited season for 1891

AT RENO, NEV.

DESCRIPTION.

BOZERO was foaled March 18, 1887. He is a handsome sorrel with star in face and white legs; of splendid conformation; stands 15½ hands high; has great power and substance, and is of the highest finish. His disposition is remarkably good, and he is very intelligent. These good traits, together with his excellent blood lines, will make him one of the finest foal-getters in Nevada.

PEDIGREE.

BOZERO was sired by Prompter (No. 2393); he by Blue Bull (No. 75). Blue Bull is the sire of Georgetown; 2365; Zoe B. 2374; Besie; 2375; Royal Bounce; 239; Lena Swallow; 239; Will Cody; 2395; Silverton; 2395; Chance; 2395; Lucy Fry; 2395.

BOZERO's dam was Mary, by Flaxtail (No. 813). Flaxtail was the sire of the dam of Goldleaf, who made 235 at 3 years old and 231½ at 4 years old.

TERMS $30 FOR THE SEASON

With usual return privileges. The best of care taken of mares in any manner that the owner may desire, but no responsibility assumed for accidents or escapes.

As roadsters are a ready sale, and are fast taking the place of the big and heavy Norman and Clydesdales, breeders should improve the opportunity of getting a saleable colt by breeding to Bozero.

OPERA HOUSE DRY GOODS STORE.—C. W. BOOTON.

To the Business Men and Citizens of the State of Nevada:

The time has come when I am compelled to plead my own cause in this boycotting business. First, I will acknowledge that I signed the first contract to close at 8 o'clock, also that I did all I could to carry it out and help the League, but as it has been my misfortune to have reverses in business, and as I was compelled to raise money for parties that I owe, I went to the Clerk's League at a meeting on two different occasions, and told them it would be impossible for me to close at 8 o'clock.

Now, when the League says that I, on different occasions violated my pledge, all I can say and can prove, and that by Mr. Al Wilson, who is a member of the League, that it is FALSE, as Mr. Wilson has been in my employ since the contract was signed.

So far as my word is concerned, it is for the people to say, and not for the League to publish such trash to the entire State. I will further state that when the time comes that a few boys try to pull down and degrade a man when he has the misfortune that I have had, then it is high time to sell out and let the boys run the town.

Respectfully,

C. W. BOOTON.

"LITTLE BO PEEP"
had lost her sheep and couldn't tell where to find them. So the old nursery rhyme says, and it goes on to bid her "Leave them alone and they'll come home and bring their tails behind them." All this may be true of lost sheep, but if you have lost your health you cannot afford to leave them alone. It will not come back of its own accord. Some people brag that they never bother about colds. They "let them go the way they came." Alas! too often the victims go to a consumptive's grave. Until very recently a cure for consumption, which is universally acknowledged to be a scourge affecting the lungs, would have been looked upon as miraculous, but now people are beginning to realize that the disease is not incurable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it if taken in time and given a fair trial. This world-renowned remedy will not make new lungs, but it will restore diseased ones to a healthy state when other means have failed. It is the most potent tonic or strength restorer, alternative or blood purifier, and nutritive, or food builder known to medical science. For lingering Coughs, Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, "Liver Complaint," and Dyspepsia or Indigestion, it is an unequalled remedy.

ESPIONAGE IN FRANCE.

The Spy System as Observed by a Visitor in Paris.

A City Which Swarms with Police and Their emissaries, Who are Constantly Watching and Dogging the Footsteps of Foreigners and Strangers.

The Third Republic is no freer than were any previous French regimes, says a writer in the Philadelphia Times, from this deep taint of what the French call mouchardise. Never before at any period of France's history has the reign of spycraft been so widespread and absolute in Paris as now. There has been latterly much discussion in the world's press of the extraordinary degree to which official espionage obtains in Russia, and very interesting details have been forthcoming on the subject. I am now in a position to affirm that in Paris I do not say throughout the whole of France—the meshes of the detective net are woven even more closely round the entire population than has ever been the case in St. Petersburg. Evidence of this fact might easily be found in the secret history of the Boulangerist conspiracy. From first to last every detail of this movement was known to the police, more than three-fourths of the Boulangerists themselves being informers.

The instant you arrive at a Paris station you are in the midst of spies. You are driven to a hotel in a cab. In half an hour the cabman will furnish the police with any particulars he may have been able to gather concerning your position, destination, business, etc. Arrived at your hotel, you become the object of scrutiny, as close as it is secret, on the part of divers persons, who, though attached to the place in the capacity of manager or cashier, or even porter or "boots," are in reality enrolled soldiers of the great detective army.

And here I may mention a special characteristic of the French detective system—its faculty of recruiting adherents in all classes of society. French spies, for the most part, are not simple spies, or nothing more. They have a trade or occupation of their own, to which they seem wholly and solely devoted, while yet assiduously pursuing sub rosa their spying.

The unsuspecting stranger in Paris has dinner at his hotel served by a waiter who, as a matter of course, is in the pay of the police, and will subsequently report to them what conversation he overhears during the meal. He then sallies forth, primed with a glass or two of fine champagne, for an evening's amusement of the true Parisian sort. First, he repairs to one of the brilliant boulevard play-houses. A few stalls away from him sits a gentlemanly-looking man, with steady, observant eyes, who glances now and again at our friend, "I wonder where I've seen that man before," he never has seen him before, but it doesn't enter his head for a moment to suspect the man of being what he really is—a police spy.

The play over, there is just time for half an hour's stroll under the horse-chestnuts in the Jardin de Paris. Here nine-tenths of the attendants are either spies or scamps; or may, indeed, be both at once, for French police authorities are not very squeamish in choosing their instruments, and seem to have a sort of preference for scoundrels over others. Their theory runs that the greater villain a man is the better spy he will make; moreover, the most efficacious means of keeping a man under spy surveillance is to have him become a spy himself, for spies spy upon each other quite as much as on the rest of mankind.

But our foreigner finishes up the evening by turning into the Cafe Americain for supper, where he has for next-door neighbor a seductive young woman, with whom he enters into conversation. She has a sweet smile, which displays two rows of glittering teeth, and puts many questions to him concerning France and the French. Naturally enough, our visitor imagines this is all done out of that bright, easy, Gallic politeness he admires so much, for how is he to know that every word he has said in reply will come to the ear of the police not later than the following afternoon?

If our friend be fond of sport he will soon be finding his way to the racetrack near the capital and into the baccarat clubs with which Paris abounds, and here he will be hourly in contact with police spies in greater numbers than there are racers on the course or cards in the pack. And so the game goes on in every sphere of Paris life and society.

A Dog Goes to the Almshouse.
Wide Awake is responsible for the following: A family in Salem, Mass., owned a dog that had become quite old and troublesome. He was cross, and would take the best place in the room and no one could make him leave it willingly. At last grandma, much troubled, said: "Sir, this dog is so troublesome we must send him away." The dog got up and looked at her in sorrow and went out of the room. In a few days they heard that this dog, whom every body knew, had gone to the poor-house, where the town's poor people were taken care of, and stranger still, on Saturdays, when many of the inmates were to see friends, this dog also went home to see "sir" and "mam," stayed awhile and then went back again and lived there ever after.

Curious Census Facts.
It is a curious fact, revealed by the figures of the recent census, that while there are but the United States three cities of more than 1,000,000 inhabitants each, one of between 500,000 and 900,000, three of between 400,000 and 500,000 each, and nine of between 300,000 and 400,000 each, there is not a single one having between 300,000 and 400,000 inhabitants. In 1860 we had but nine cities with a population of over 100,000 each.

Red Tape in France.
It took a village in the department of Drome, France, two years to get permission from the Government at Paris to introduce a water supply. The matter was passed about from one official to another and samples of water had to be analyzed, the council of health consulted, and various other requisites attended to, all of which took a good deal of time.

INEXPENSIVE BENEVOLENCE.

The Method a Wise Man Used with Circumlocutors of Subscription Papers.

I was in the office of a Chicago real-estate and loan agent the other day, says a writer in the New York Sun, and had scarcely got seated when a woman was admitted, and asked him for a subscription to some charity.

"With the greatest of pleasure, ma'am," he replied, and producing a check-book he filled out a check for $10. She thanked him very sweetly as she withdrew, and it was only five minutes after when a man entered and asked for a contribution to some poor children's fund.

"Certainly—only too glad," replied the agent, and he wrote out another check for $10.

After we had been interrupted four times, and he had cheerfully written four checks I said to him:

"You certainly deserve the title of a philanthropist."

"Well, perhaps,"

"But I notice that you ask no questions and take every thing for granted. Have you no fear of being swindled?"

"None whatever."

"Well, the people of Chicago must be an honest crowd."

"Oh, it isn't that, my dear Sir. Let me—"

Here a lady entered and asked for a contribution to assist in giving a free excursion to a Sunday-school, and he wrote out a check for $15 and waved her out, and continued:

"Let me explain. All those checks are worthless, as they are drawn on a bank where I have no funds. I do it to save time. All these callers come prepared to argue and explain and contend, and each one of them would sit for half an hour. By giving these checks I secure a great reputation around the block as a philanthropist and a well-heeled man, and it costs me nothing."

Here he paused to fill out a check for $30 for the establishment of a sailors' berth, and then finished:

"When the checks are presented they are found to be worthless, and those holding them either get mad or see the joke. In either case they never return, nor do they give me away. 'Tis my boy, Saves time, money and pain; and it won't be a month before you'll be satisfied that you are doing charity a better service than if you were handing out the cold cash."

The Pusher.
The pusher is a table utensil with whose use the majority of bachelors may be unfamiliar, for it is used only by small children. Even the best bred youngster is apt at first to help himself with the tools that nature provided—to push refractory bits of food upon his spoon with his fingers. The pusher has a handle like that of a small spoon. Instead of a bowl it has across the end a curved slightly forward, so that the food can not slide off at the sides. With a special in one hand and a pusher in the other, a mother can feed a child with ease.

England's Pensioners.
There are a number of notables who are enjoying a pension for judicial services in England. The Earl of Selborne and Lord Herschell receive each five thousand pounds a year as ex-Lord Chancellors, but sit with the Lord Chancellor and the lords of appeal in ordinary for judicial business. Lord Blackburn, many years a Judge of the Queen's Bench, did so for eleven years a lord of appeal, enjoys an allowance of three thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds. The pension usually granted to a judge on retirement after not less than fifteen years' service is three thousand five hundred pounds.

A Contradictory Character.
Adams—An elevator boy is a strange character, isn't he?

Jones—Is he not?

Adams—Why, every one that's up in the world he runs down, and yet he gives a lift to all who wish to rise.—Life.

Notice
IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, Bank of Nevada, a Corporation, Plaintiff, vs. J. O'Brien, Defendant.—Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale issued out of the District Court of the State of Nevada, in the above entitled action, where in the Bank of Nevada, a corporation, the above named plaintiff, obtained a judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale, against J. O'Brien, defendant, on the 15th day of February, A. D. 1891, for the sum of $4,000 in U. S. gold coin, with interest thereon, in all amounting to $4,372, with 3 per cent. on the same, amounting to $134, together with interest costs of suit and accruing costs and interest, I am commanded to sell that certain piece or parcel of land situated, lying and being in the counties of Washoe and Storey, State of Nevada, and described as follows, to-wit: South half of the southeast quarter and the south half of the southeast quarter of Section 14, township 20 north, range 23 east, M. P. B. and M., containing 20 acres of land, according to the U. S. Surveys, with all water rights, springs, ditches and easements appertaining to and with said land, situated in Storey and Washoe counties, State of Nevada, together with all encumbrances, hereditaments and appurtenances.
Public notice is hereby given that on Monday, the 9th day of March, A. D. 1891, at one o'clock P. M. of said day, in front of the Court House in said Washoe County, I will, in obedience to the order of sale upon decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the said judgment, with interests, costs and accruing costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder, for gold coin of the United States.
BAKER & WINES, Attorney for Plaintiff.
Dated this 14th day of March, A. D. 1891. W. H. CAUGHLIN, Sheriff of Washoe County.

Delinquent Notice.
The above sale is postponed until Saturday, the 28th day of March, 1891, at the same hour and place.
Dated this 6th day of March, 1891. Sheriff. id
